XXIVth YEAR.] THE [No. 1228.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1769.

The following PETITION from the LOWER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY of the Province of Maryland, to the KING, paſſed the Houſe, on the 21ſt of June laſt, and was tranſmitted by the Honourable Speaker, to Charles Garth, Eſq; to be preſented to his Majeſty.

To the KING's moſt excellent MAJESTY.

Moſt gracious SOVEREIGN,

OUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of your Province of Maryland, happy in their Allegiance to the beſt of Kings, and warm in Affection and Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government, with all Humility, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and ſupplicate your Majeſty, ever graciouſly inclined to hear the juſt Complaints of your moſt remote Subjects.

Your Majeſty's People of this Province, conceive it a fixed and unalterable Principle in the Nature of Things, and a Part of the very Idea of Property, that whatever a Man hath honeſtly acquired, cannot be taken from him, without his Conſent. This immutable Principle, they humbly apprehend, is happily ingrafted, as a Fundamental, into the Engliſh Conſtitution, and is fully declared by Magna Charta, and by the Petition and Bill of Rights: Hence it is, that your Majeſty's moſt diſtant Subjects are juſtly entitled to all the Rights, Liberties, Privileges, and Immunities, of our Subjects born within the Kingdom of England. Under this Idea, your Majeſty's royal Predeceſſor, King CHARLES I. by his Charter of this Province, did grant as follows: "We will alſo, and of our more abundant Grace, for Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, do firmly charge, conſtitute, ordain, and command, that the ſaid Province be of our Allegiance, and that all and ſingular, the Subjects and Liege-men of Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, tranſplanted, or hereafter to be tranſplanted into the Province aforeſaid, and the Children of them, and of others, their Deſcendants, whether already born there, or hereafter to be born, be, and ſhall be Natives, and Liege-men of Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors of our Kingdom of England, and Ireland, and in all Things ſhall be held, treated, reputed, and eſteemed as the faithful Liege-men of Us, and our Heirs and Succeſſors, born within our Kingdom of England; alſo Lands, Tenements, Revenues, Services, and other Hereditaments whatſoever, within our Kingdom of England, and other our Dominions, to inherit, or otherwiſe purchaſe, receive, take, have, hold, buy, and poſſeſs, and the ſame to uſe and enjoy, and the ſame to give, ſell, alien, and bequeath; and likewiſe, all Privileges, Franchiſes, and Liberties of this our Kingdom of England, freely, quietly, and peaceably, to have and poſſeſs, and the ſame may uſe and enjoy, in the ſame Manner as our Liege-men, born, or to be born within our ſaid Kingdom of England, without Impediment, Moleſtation, Vexation, Impeachment, or Grievance of Us, or any of our Heirs, or Succeſſors; any Statute, Act, Ordinance, or Proviſion, to the contrary thereof, notwithſtanding. And further, we will, and do, by theſe Preſents, for Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, covenant and grant to, and with the aforeſaid now Baron of Baltimore, his Heirs and Aſſigns, that we, our Heirs and Succeſſors, at no Time hereafter, will impoſe, or make, or cauſe to be impoſed, any Impoſitions, Cuſtoms, or other Taxations, Quotas, or other Contributions, whatſoever, in, or upon the Reſidents, or Inhabitants of the Province aforeſaid, for their Goods, Lands, or Tenements, within the ſame Province, or upon any Tenements, Lands, Goods, or Chattles, within the Province aforeſaid, or in, or upon any Goods, or Merchandizes, within the Province aforeſaid, or within the Ports, or Harbours of the ſaid Province, to be laden, or unladen: And we will, and do, for Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, enjoin and command, that this our Declaration, ſhall, from Time to Time, be received and allowed, in all our Courts and Prætorian Judicatories, and before all the Judges whatſoever, of Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, for a ſufficient and lawful Diſcharge, Payment, and Acquittance thereof, charging all, and ſingular, the Officers, and Miniſters of Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, and enjoining them, under our heavy Diſpleaſure, that they do not, at any Time, preſume to attempt any Thing to the contrary of the Premiſes, or that may in any wiſe contravene the ſame; but that they, at all Times, as is fitting, do aid and aſſiſt the aforeſaid now Baron of Baltimore, and his Heirs, and the aforeſaid Inhabitants, and Merchants, of the Province of Maryland aforeſaid, and their Servants, and Miniſters, Factors, and Aſſigns, in the fulleſt Uſe and Enjoyment of this our Charter."

Our Anceſtors firmly relying on the royal Promiſe, and upon theſe plain and expreſs Declarations of their inherent, natural, and conſtitutional Rights, at the Hazard of their Lives and Fortunes, tranſported themſelves and Families to this Country, then ſcarcely known, and inhabited only by Savages. The Proſpect of a full and peaceable Enjoyment of their Liberties and Properties, ſoftened their Toils, and ſtrengthened them to overcome innumerable Difficulties. Heaven proſpered their Endeavours, and has given to your Majeſty, a conſiderable Increaſe of faithful Subjects, improved the Trade, and added Riches to the Mother-Country.

Thus, happy in the Enjoyments of the Rights and Privileges of natural-born Subjects, have they, and their Poſterity lived, and been treated as Freemen, and thus, hath the great fundamental Principle of the Conſtitution, that no Man ſhall be taxed, but with his own Conſent, given by himſelf, or by his Repreſentative, been ever extended, and preſerved inviolate in this remote Part of your Majeſty's Dominion, until queſtioned lately by your Parliament.

It is therefore with the deepeſt Sorrow, may it pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſty, that we now approach the Throne, on Behalf of your faithful Subjects of this Province, with all Humility, to repreſent to your Majeſty, that by ſeveral Statutes, lately enacted in the Parliament of Great-Britain, by which ſundry Rates and Duties are to be raiſed and collected within your Majeſty's Colonies in America, for the ſole and expreſs Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue, this great fundamental Principle of the Conſtitution, is, in our Apprehenſion, infringed. The People of this Province, Royal Sire, are not in any Manner, nor can they ever poſſibly be, effectually repreſented in the Britiſh Parliament: While, therefore, your Majeſty's Commons of Great-Britain continue to give and grant the Property of the People in America, your faithful Subjects of this, and every other Colony, muſt be deprived of that moſt invaluable Privilege, the Power of granting their own Money, and of every Opportunity of manifeſting, by chearful Aids, their Attachment to their King, and Zeal for his Service; they muſt be cut off from all Intercourſe with their Sovereign, and expect not to hear of the royal Approbation; they muſt ſubmit to the Power of the Commons of Great-Britain; and, precluded the Bleſſings, ſhall ſcarcely retain the Name of Freedom.

May we then, moſt gracious Sovereign, be permitted, humbly to implore your tender Conſideration of this unhappy Circumſtance of your American People? May we pray, that your Majeſty will extend to your faithful People of Maryland, that paternal Regard which your Majeſty hath ſo invariably ſhewn to the juſt Rights of all your Subjects, and be graciouſly pleaſed to grant them ſuch Relief, as to your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Juſtice ſhall ſeem meet?

WARSAW, December 16.

THE Confederates of the Sieur Malczewſky fell the 4th Inſt. upon the little Town of Zirke, near the Wartha, and demanded of the Inhabitants a Contribution of 20,000 Florins, beſides all the Corn and Forage they took away with them; but the Adminiſtrator having, not long before their Arrival, carried off all the Caſh to Drieſſen, theſe Malecontents deſtroyed the Caſtle, and moſt of the Houſes, and in Revenge, for having miſſed their Prey, they maſſacred ſeveral of the unfortunate Inhabitants.

LEGHORN, Dec. 16. They write from Corſica, that Two Engliſh Noblemen, who came there, after having ſpoken with General Paoli, returned to Italy in a Ship under French Colours. The Corſicans have taken into their Pay 5000 regular Troops, in Order to enable them to oppoſe the 40 Battalions of French Troops that are to go to Corſica in the Spring. Notwithſtanding theſe Reinforcements, the Corſicans are more than ever determined to ſpend the laſt Drop of Blood in Defence of their Liberties.

PARIS, Dec. 19. Some Letters from Poland adviſe, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia will command in Perſon her Army againſt the Turks.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 20. Some Differences having ariſen between the Senate and the College of the Chamber, the former reſolved on the Eſtabliſhment of an extraordinary Tribunal to take Cognizance of, and to decide them. Of which the King being informed, he went to the Senate on the 12th of this Month, declared his Diſapprobation of that Meaſure, propoſed the holding an Aſſembly of the States, and cauſed a Writing to be entered in the Regiſters of the Senate, in his Preſence, at the End of which his Majeſty declared, that if the College continued to oppoſe the Convocation of the States, he would abdicate the Crown.

As ſoon as the King had retired, the Senate took into Conſideration his Majeſty's Declarations. At the Cloſe of their Deliberation, the Senators Frieſendorff and De Ribbing went to Court, and earneſtly prayed the King that he would deſiſt from his Demand; but his Majeſty declared he would not, and deſired that the Senate might give him a categorical Anſwer. An Hour after, Six other Senators went, and intreated the King to grant the Senate a Delay of Four Days. His Majeſty, then loſing all Patience, told them, that he conſidered their Requeſt of a Delay as a Refuſal; that he renounced the Government 'til the States ſhould be aſſembled, that he forbade the diſpatching the leaſt Buſineſs in his Name, and that he inſiſted the Seals ſhould be delivered to him.

The next Day the King ſent the Prince-Royal to the reſpective Colleges, there to read the following Declaration:—"We order, by theſe Preſents, our dear Son, the Prince-Royal, to notify to the Colleges of the State, that, judging it neceſſary to convoke the States of the Kingdom, we had preſumed that the Senate would have conſented thereto this Day, which not being done, we can only conſider their Silence, as a Refuſal; conſequently, we find ourſelves under the Neceſſity of abdicating the Regency, until the ſaid States ſhall be convoked. Done at Stockholm, Dec. 13, 1768.

(Signed) ADOLPHUS FREDERICK."

The Prince-Royal went directly to the College of the Chancery, read there, with a loud Voice, the above Order, and demanded that the Seal, with the Royal Arms, ſhould be delivered up to him; but the Keeper of it being abſent, this Requeſt of his Royal Highneſs could not be complied with. The Prince, however, ſignified to the Members of the College, that they ſhould anſwer it to his Majeſty, and the States, if they continued to make Uſe of the Seal.

From this College, the Prince-Royal went ſucceſſively to the others. The Streets were filled with Crowds of People, impatient to learn the Iſſue of a Scene ſo extraordinary and critical.

While his Royal Highneſs was making this Tour of the Colleges, the Senate continued aſſembled, and ſent a Third Deputation to the King, praying him to change his Reſolution. This Attempt having alſo proved as fruitleſs as the Two preceding, Frieſendorff, Hiærne, Horn, Lagerbielke, Walwick and Funck, came to a Reſolution of conforming to the King's Intention, and conſenting to the Convocation of the States; their Voices, joined to his Majeſty's, formed a Majority.

In about Three Hours after, the King reſumed the Crown and the Scepter, and the Aſſembly of the Dyet was fixed for the 15th of March.

LONDON,

Dec. 22. 'Tis ſaid, that from what paſſed at the India-Court Yeſterday, it appears that the India-Company have already profited by their Territorial Acquiſitions more than Five Millions Sterling, for they have diſcharged in Bengal, Bond Debts to the Amount of 700,000 l. they have allowed Increaſe of their Annual Accounts 1,600,000 l. they have remaining in the different Treaſuries of Bengal 800,000 l. they have at Madraſs 140,000 l they have 200,000 l. in China; they have paid off in England 1,000,000 l. Total 5,640,000 l. Excluſive of this, they have their Warehouſes full of Goods, their homeward and outward-bound Ships richly laden, and they have juſt acquired the Dewanny of the Myſore Country and Balagat Carnatic; an Acquiſition which is variouſly repreſented, ſome ſtating it at Three Millions, annually, and others at no more than Two.

It is ſaid that when her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales accompanies their Majeſties next Summer to Hanover, ſhe will retire to Zell, which Place her Royal Highneſs propoſes to make her future Reſidence, and will not return again to England.

Dec. 24. The Empreſs of Ruſſia's Declaration of War againſt the Turks, has already appeared in Poland, where Fifty Thouſand Troops are ſpeedily expected from Finland, Ingermania, and Livonia, beſides Twenty Thouſand Calmucks.

According to Letters from Leghorn, General Paoli has now a Number of Scotch Highlanders in his Pay, ſeveral of whom had ſerved in the laſt War.

A Letter from the Confines of Poland, dated Dec. 9, ſays, "We learn from Caminiec, that the Turks and Tartars have Orders to retire from the Frontiers of Moldavia, and Walachia, probably, in order to go into Winter-Quarters."

Dec. 29. The General Court of the Eaſt-India Company laſt Wedneſday was held, to conſider ſome Advices of the State of their Concerns in ſeveral Parts of the Company's Settlements, and alſo the Conſideration of ſome Propoſals made by the Directors to the Board of Treaſury, and the Anſwers of that Board to them. The principal Matters were, an Offer of 400,000 l. for Five Years, in Conſideration of waving any Claim to the Territorial Revenues of the Company in Aſia, and on an implied Condition, that the Reſtriction on the Dividend ſhould be enlarged to Twelve and an Half per Cent. with the Limitation, that not more than One per Cent. Advance be made in one Year. The Senſe of the Court, as far as could be gathered from the Debates, and other Appearances, ſeemed to be againſt concurring with the Propoſals; but the farther Conſideration was adjourned 'til that Day Fortnight.

The Term of Two Years, for which the India Company paid the Government 800,000 l. to avoid any Diſcuſſion of the Claim of the Crown to the Revenue accruing from their Aſiatic Dominions, being expired, there is great Reaſon to believe, that their Affairs will occaſion great Speculation and Diſpute. Their Negociations with the Miniſtry will not only be attended with great Difficulty, but beſides, the Two Parties are ſtruggling for the Directorſhip; the Directors themſelves are now engaged in warm Diſputes reſpecting their Meaſures.

A Correſpondent at Bath, informs us, that an Officer there took an Opportunity lately, in the Hearing of a Lady pretty nearly related to Mr. Wilkes, to ſpeak of that Gentleman in a diſreſpectful virulent Manner, and concluded with ſaying, d—— him, I wiſh I had his Head." To which the Lady replied, with a very ſignificant Emphaſis, "I wiſh, Sir, you had but Half his Head." What do you mean by that, Madam, returned the Officer?—"Becauſe (replied the Lady) you would not then, Sir, have rendered yourſelf ſo ridiculous as to calumniate an abſent Man, who, notwithſtanding the Aſperſions you have ſcandalouſly thrown out againſt him, is greatly above being guilty of ſo mean, ſo unmanly an Act."

On Saturday last an Expreſs arrived from the Court of Berlin, which occaſions much Speculation.

Jan. 10. The King of Denmark, who was not expected at Altena 'til the 6th Inſtant, arrived there the 2d; his Majeſty it is ſuppoſed having accelerated his Return to his Capital, in order to be more at Hand to hear of the important Affairs tranſacting in Sweden.

Letters from Germany adviſe, that Prince Poniatowſki, Brother to the King of Poland, is going to quit the Service of the Court of Vienna, and to enter into that of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, who has declared him Field Marſhal of her Armies.

Jan. 12. It is given out, that ſome Changes in his Majeſty's principal Goverments in North-America will ſoon take Place.

We hear that a Gentleman of great Conſequence in North-America has wrote to a Correſpondent here, requeſting him to wait on Mr. Wilkes, and obtain his Leave for an eminent Artiſt to take a Portrait, which is intended to be ſent to Boſton, in order to be hung up in the Public-Hall!

It is ſtrongly reported that Three Sail of Ships of the Line of Battle and Two Frigates are ſpeedily to be put in Commiſſion at Portſmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Dec. 16.

"It is aſſured that his Daniſh Majeſty has made a Preſent to the King, of a Regiment of Cavalry, which is to be called the Royal Danes; upon Condition that the Duke de Duras and his Deſcendants ſhall always be Colonels of it. There are Two Precedents of the ſame kind in the Families of Noailles and Beauffremont."

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, Dec. 23.

"General Paoli continues to harraſs the French, and has lately made ſeveral Attacks on them in their Winter-Quarters, and has killed them 300 Men: A large Quantity of Proviſions, and Two Pieces of Cannon, were lately ſeized on by his Light-Horſe. It is this Morning reported, that Two Corſican Xebecs have taken Two large French Barks laden with Powder and warlike Stores, and a large Sum of Money deſigned to pay their Troops."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 1, 1769.

"I cannot cloſe my Letter with a more polite Piece of Intelligence, than to inform you of the great Reputation the Conteſſe de Barry poſſeſſes at Court. This Lady is of Iriſh Extraction, though born in France, and is ſaid to be a near Relation of the Earl of B—e, of the Kingdom of Ireland. She has acquired that Conſequence here, that all Favours are conferred through her Means; and the King is ſo particularly attached to her, that he ſeems to transfer the Eſteem he had for Pompadour, and the Affection he had for Murphoy, unitedly, to the preſent Favourite."

BOSTON.

March 6. We are told, that the Affairs of theſe Colonies were to be ſtrictly canvaſſed in Parliament, and that every Thing would be done for them which could reaſonably be expected.

Letters from London mention, that the Halifax Packet, which was ſent home laſt Summer with Diſpatches from Commodore Hood, is lying at Portſmouth fitted for Sea, and ready to ſail at an Hour's Warning; and is only detained 'til the Parliament has determined the American Affairs; when ſhe will ſail with Orders for General Gage, and the American Governors.

The ſame Letters informs us, that it is more than probable, that the Earl of Chatham, and George Grenville, Eſq; will be appointed Secretaries of State before the End of the Holidays, as all the different Branches of the Grenville Family, are now firmly united.—That if this Arrangement ſhould take Place, it is not doubted, but a War will ſoon enſue; which will give great Satisfaction to a noble Earl, as he will then moſt certainly, ſolely guide the Reins of Government.

PHILADELPHIA.

March 16. By the Brig Ann and Catharine, Capt. James Cooper, from Leghorn but laſt from the Iſland of Sardinia, we have the following Advices, viz. That during his ſtay in Leghorn, the Corſicans and the French had Five Engagements, in all which the Corſicans had gained the Victory, that they had kill'd and taken Priſoners Ten or Twelve Hundred, among which was a French General. It was generally thought and expected there, that the Corſicans would entirely rout the French out of the Iſland this Winter. Mr. Henry Bambridge of this City had been ſent by Sir John Dick, the Engliſh Conſul at Leghorn, to Corſica, to take Paoli's Portrait, which he had accordingly done, and it was ſent for England before Capt. Cooper ſailed from Leghorn, for which he was preſented with 100 Chequins. It is ſaid at Leghorn, that an Engliſh Frigate was certainly arrived at Corſica, with a Preſent for General Paoli from the Court Ladies, who had drank his Health. An Account alſo arrived, that a free Exportation of Corn was allowed out of Sardinia and Sicily to France, Spain and Portugal, and that they had the Appearance of very fine Crops there as well as throughout all Italy.

(6w) THOMAS RUTLAND.

On Saturday last an Expreſs arrived from the Court of Berlin, which occaſions much Speculation.

Jan. 10. The King of Denmark, who was not expected at Altena 'til the 6th Inſtant, arrived there the 2d; his Majeſty it is ſuppoſed having accelerated his Return to his Capital, in order to be more at Hand to hear of the important Affairs tranſacting in Sweden.

Letters from Germany adviſe, that Prince Poniatowſki, Brother to the King of Poland, is going to quit the Service of the Court of Vienna, and to enter into that of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, who has declared him Field Marſhal of her Armies.

Jan. 12. It is given out, that ſome Changes in his Majeſty's principal Governments in North-America will ſoon take Place.

We hear that a Gentleman of great Conſequence in North-America has wrote to a Correſpondent here, requeſting him to wait on Mr. Wilkes, and obtain his Leave for an eminent Artiſt to take a Portrait, which is intended to be ſent to Boſton, in order to be hung up in the Public-Hall!

It is ſtrongly reported that Three Sail of Ships of the Line of Battle and Two Frigates are ſpeedily to be put in Commiſſion at Portſmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Dec. 16.

"It is aſſured that his Daniſh Majeſty has made a Preſent to the King, of a Regiment of Cavalry, which is to be called the Royal Danes; upon Condition that the Duke de Duras and his Deſcendants ſhall always be Colonels of it. There are Two Precedents of the ſame kind in the Families of Noailles and Beauffremont."

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, Dec. 23.

"General Paoli continues to harraſs the French, and has lately made ſeveral Attacks on them in their Winter-Quarters, and has killed them 300 Men: A large Quantity of Proviſions, and Two Pieces of Cannon, were lately ſeized on by his Light-Horſe. It is this Morning reported, that Two Corſican Xebecs have taken Two large French Barks laden with Powder and warlike Stores, and a large Sum of Money deſigned to pay their Troops."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 1, 1769.

"I cannot cloſe my Letter with a more polite Piece of Intelligence, than to inform you of the great Reputation the Conteſſe de Barry poſſeſſes at Court. This Lady is of Iriſh Extraction, though born in France, and is ſaid to be a near Relation of the Earl of B—e, of the Kingdom of Ireland. She has acquired that Conſequence here, that all Favours are conferred through her Means; and the King is ſo particularly attached to her, that he ſeems to transfer the Eſteem he had for Pompadour, and the Affection he had for Murphoy, unitedly, to the preſent Favourite."

BOSTON.

March 6. We are told, that the Affairs of theſe Colonies were to be ſtrictly canvaſſed in Parliament, and that every Thing would be done for them which could reaſonably be expected.

Letters from London mention, that the Halifax Packet, which was ſent home laſt Summer with Diſpatches from Commodore Hood, is lying at Portſmouth fitted for Sea, and ready to ſail at an Hour's Warning; and is only detained 'til the Parliament has determined the American Affairs; when ſhe will ſail with Orders for General Gage, and the American Governors.

The ſame Letters informs us, that it is more than probable, that the Earl of Chatham, and George Grenville, Eſq; will be appointed Secretaries of State before the End of the Holidays, as all the different Branches of the Grenville Family, are now firmly united.—That if this Arrangement ſhould take Place, it is not doubted, but a War will ſoon enſue; which will give great Satisfaction to a noble Earl, as he will then moſt certainly, ſolely guide the Reins of Government.

PHILADELPHIA.

March 16. By the Brig Ann and Catharine, Capt. James Cooper, from Leghorn but laſt from the Iſland of Sardinia, we have the following Advices, viz. That during his ſtay in Leghorn, the Corſicans and the French had Five Engagements, in all which the Corſicans had gained the Victory, that they had kill'd and taken Priſoners Ten or Twelve Hundred, among which was a French General. It was generally thought and expected there, that the Corſicans would entirely rout the French out of the Iſland this Winter. Mr. Henry Bambridge of this City had been ſent by Sir John Dick, the Engliſh Conſul at Leghorn, to Corſica, to take Paoli's Portrait, which he had accordingly done, and it was ſent for England before Capt. Cooper ſailed from Leghorn, for which he was preſented with 100 Chequins. It is ſaid at Leghorn, that an Engliſh Frigate was certainly arrived at Corſica, with a Preſent for General Paoli from the Court Ladies, who had drank his Health. An Account alſo arrived, that a free Exportation of Corn was allowed out of Sardinia and Sicily to France, Spain and Portugal, and that they had the Appearance of very fine Crops there as well as throughout all Italy.

As Billie was some Time last Summer brought from Carolina, (to which Place, under the Sanction of a forged Pass, he had travelled as a Freeman) it is more than probable that if he is not now engaged by some Ship-Builders to the Northward, that he will endeavour to get on board of some Craft, bound for Charles-Town, or to some Place in Carolina, where he expects to be free.

Whoever takes up the said Negro, or Mulatto, and brings One, or both, to the Subscriber, or to Mr. John Calvert, Manager of Col. Taylor's Mine-Bank, in Baltimore County, or will secure them, so as they may be had again, shall receive, for each, a Reward of Five Pounds, if taken Forty Miles from home, or the above Reward, if at a greater Distance from the said Mr. John Calvert, or from
